MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Administrative Branch, DPD-DD/P
THROUGH : Chief, Personnel Section, DPD-DD/P
SUBJECT : Supplemental Subsistence Allowance (BAS)
REFERENCE : [REDACTED] dated 5 January 1961

25X1A

1. The reasons advanced for us to pay supplemental subsistence allowance should be advanced to the Base Commander for his reconsideration to make this payment.

2. Frankly, the reasons listed by the Detachment do not in themselves authorize us to make this payment. All their reasons are military reasons, and cover and security apparently are not the problem in this instance.

3. In view of this, I feel the Detachment should make one more attempt with the Base Commander to re-institute a supplemental subsistence allowance.

4. If the USAF would not pay, then it should be assumed that USAF has taken what they feel is necessary action. True, this is a tough decision in view of the reasons indicated; but these same reasons should be given to the Base Commander.

5. I also feel that the MPD position on this should be solicited.
